JUSTICE THY BROWN
CLERK OF CIRCUIT COURT

MOTION TO ADMONISH STATE AND CAROL SPIZZIRRI

Now comes Annabel K. Melongo, Pro Se, and respectfully asks this Honorable Court to admonish the state prosecutor and Carol Spizzirri for interfering with the defendant's strategy defense while issuing subpoenas Duces Tecum. As grounds of this motion the defendant states:

1. Carol Spizzirri is the complainant in the above captioned case.
2. At various occasions during Discovery, the state prosecutor went on record telling this Honorable Court that Carol Spizzirri was a third party to this case when the Defendant tried to have documents from her through the state.
3. It reality, Carol Spizzirri's role in this case is beyond that of a complainant or a third party. She's the leitmotiv in this case making decisions and directing people and the state prosecutor to prevent the Defendant from presenting a meaningful defense.
4. As such, she contacted various individuals and advised them not to respond to subpoenas ordered by this Honorable Court and directed them to the state prosecutor to have them quashed. Attached Exhibit 1.
5. Carol Spizzirri's actions are criminal under 720 ILCS 5/32-4(b) in that she's deterring various witnesses in the case at bar to comply with subpoenas issued by the Defendant.

WHEREFORE, due to the conflict of interests and the lack of fair trial that result from Mrs. Spizzirri and the state prosecutor's actions, the Defendant respectfully asks this Honorable Court to admonish both the state prosecutor and Carol Spizzirri and to order Carol Spizzirri to limit her actions to those of a complainant or a third party to this case.

Respectfully Submitted,

Defendant's lawyer

It is my understanding that you wish to consult with Mr. Salerno before we speak again. Would you please forward my information to him in the event that he has any questions?
