Motion To Appoint Experts

Now Comes Annabel K. Melongo, Pro Se, and respectfully asks this Court to appoint a computer expert, a court reporter expert and a court records expert for the Defense. As grounds of this motion, the Defendant states:

1. The Defendant was charged in April of 2010 with the offense of Eavesdropping.
2. She was in jail from April 2010 through October 2011. She went back to jail for a two weeks period in November of 2011 after the state prosecutor, Robert Podlasek, called the House Arrest Program alleging the Defendant stole a file from him. She was later released by order of the judge.
3. The computer and court records expertise in this case are extremely technical and specialized. The state prosecutor used the Illinois Attorney General for its computer expertise as well as various managers of the circuit court as court records experts.
4. The defendant is currently unemployed, has no funds for an attorney and experts.

WHEREFORE, Annabel K. Melongo asks this Honorable Court to appoint the above-mentioned experts so that she can afford a meaningful defense.

Respectfully Submitted,
