Motion For Nunc Pro Tunc Order

CLERK OF THE CIRCUIT COURT
CRIMINAL DIVISION

NOW comes, Annabel K. Melongo, Pro Se, and respectfully asks this Honorable court to issue a nunc pro tunc order correcting the court records for certain of her motions inadequately filed. As grounds of this motion, the Defendant states:

1. Mr. Albuquerk, the defendant's former attorney, filed the following motions on her behalf :

- a. Motion to Dismiss the computer tampering case alleging fraud and perjury.
- b. The Discovery Motion for the computer tampering case.
- c. The Motion To Appoint Computer Expert on the case.

2. These motions were not filed in the Cook County Criminal division but rather in the "Civil Dept." As a result, these motions don't appear in any of the computer tampering case's court records.

3. To ensure consistency with what was said at various court hearings, among others, that Mr. Albuquerk would rewrite certain of these motions and argue them, the Defendant prefers to have the records corrected instead of refiling the above motions. Furthermore, refiling these motions post Albuquerk's representation would undermine certain statements the Defendant made in her motions, communications and complaints.

WHEREFORE, the defendant respectfully asks this Honorable court to issue a nunc pro tunc order which would preserve the current filing dates, keep the consistencies of previous statements and correct Mr. Albuquerk's ineffective representation which he demonstrated by not knowing where to properly file a motion belonging to a criminal case.

Respectfully Submitted,

Defendant's lawyer
