Re: Purported Subpoena to Brian Salerno

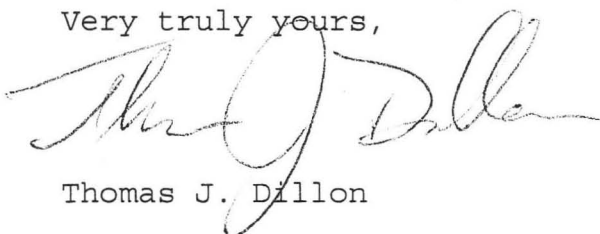

Dear Ms. Melongo:

I am writing pursuant to our representation of Brian Salerno and in response to your correspondence of September 18, 2012.

At the outset, I am informing you that other than this letter Mr. Salerno will not be responding to the subpoena you refer to in your correspondence. That subpoena is defective on its face and is not enforceable under the rules of the Illinois Supreme Court, the rules of the Circuit Court of Cook County or any other applicable statute or regulation.

In the event that you continue to pursue enforcement of that subpoena in any way we will seek to have you sanctioned by the Circuit Court of Cook County. Again, should you elect to engage in any further communications regarding this matter those communications are to be directed only to me and not to Mr. Salerno. In that regard, any communication I receive will also be brought to the attention, as appropriate, to the Circuit Court of Cook County.

Very truly yours,

Thomas J. Dillon
