Robert,

Because these 2 agents are no longer with the company I don't have useful points of contact. However, the names you are looking for are:

Mark Mcquaid (this is the person I'm thinking that would have sent the original email)

Alex Morrison (This COULD have been the other person, however, after thinking about it, I don't believe this is the case. He was dismissed from the company a couple of times for poor performance.)

Mark now works for a company called Site5.com.

Honestly I can't say with certainty that either of them sent the message because there is no verification in the PDF. However, as I mentioned on the phone, I can verify that the log entries look legit. And that tsupport@gmail.com is one of our email addresses we use for testing purposes.

If you do require me to go there to testify on October 31st, I don't mind doing so, I just need to know ASAP so I can arrange our work flow in our Charlottetown office.

Our Preferred Partners earn $100.00-$10,000.00 for each new client referral!
